

...Judgment Day

lyrics

(SinTheSis:)

Yeah, Yeah

What I would give to have you

walk a mile in my shoes (x2)

What I would give, What I would give, What I would give (x2)

So you say you don't agree

With the way I live my life,

how I choose to be

Putting me down 'cause you feel afraid

Acting like it's Judgement Day

But you can't judge me 'till you walk in my shoes

And lose anything that there is to lose

Tell me, then, would you come unglued?

Which way would you choose?

'Cause I choose the path of a warrior

And who crowned you "Your Honor"?

'Cause honor is what I'm fighting for

I'm never giving in, I'm in it to win it
If this is a sin, then SinTheSis I am

I am...

What I would give to have you

What I would give, What I would
give, What I would give (x2)

(DISL Automatic:)

Now you can push me and shove me, but you won't budge me Hate me or love me, but you can't judge me

Unless you walk a mile in my shoes

I got nothing 'cause I lost it all

Oh yeah, took that fall, but I'm back on my feet

Now I stand tall and I'm not gonna retreat

Defeat is not an option

They're trying to keep me boxed in But ain't nobody ever gonna tell me I cannot win

So I take to the stand when I appear in trial

Raise my hand and swear on the Bible

The Bible that says that only God can judge

And the way to salvation is forgiveness and love

I guess being the judge is how man becomes God

Raise up the gavel and slam it down hard

I will never vow to put my trust in you

'Cause there ain't no honor in what you do

No, there ain't no honor in what
you do

I said there ain't no honor in what
you do

(SinTheSis:)

What I would give to have you

What I would give, What I would
give, What I would give (x2)
